

Locution received Sunday/Monday 5th March 2.50 a.m. 2023.

Jesus...I needed to speak to you urgently and you would not give me the space tonight, but now, to respond. I will not abandon you even though you slight me by your refusal to listen, oh stubborn of heart.

Halina, I love you, just remember that and I will not mislead you. How often must I tell you.

You and many others are going through many trials at this time. The earth groans under the weight of war, oppression, disasters, injustice and my people are silent because they fear to speak out, frightened to poke their nose over the parapet, frightened of being thought ill of. Frightened but also too proud to acknowledge that I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

My people, your doubt will cost you much in the coming days, and you will wail like Rachel for your children, but it will be too late.

The forthcoming disaster will shake the world in a way that it has not been shaken before. Many will fall to the ground in fear and will not be consoled.

What awaits Mankind will strengthen the weary who cling on to faith at these times – but beware of the counter forces of evil which will abound!

Speak the truth before it is too late!

Speak out – you feel as if you have not been able to put out ‘My Words’ to you sufficiently – Yes, this is true, but your moment will come, and I have ensured that what you have done has born fruit.

Be careful not to let any opportunity slip for proclaiming the truth.

Be prepared to suffer. but know that I am with you always. Speak tenderly to Me, Halina. I have gifted you with so much, Do not abuse these gifts.

Speak, pray much for the hour is nigh, nearly there, when things will change abruptly. Heaven is waiting to reveal some of its mysteries and power.

You will see what the eye has not see or ear heard. Believe what you know to be true.

Remember: Believe, Receive Surrender and Give!

Continue to intercede for Humanity. Pray for the ‘lost Priests’. Pray for Fr. G. R. who is deeply in need of your prayer Try to contact Fr. N. he needs your prayer too.

Walk in Grace – and uprightness.

DO not be afraid and listen to me acutely. I love you gentle mother.

Halina.... Thank you J̄esus..... Jesus... Worry not about your children and your children’s children. I will lead them to safe pasture.
