

Locution received Saturday 5th December 2020 Home-resting awhile 14.40 Hours

Thinking I should be working – Christmas cards etc. – but having done a fair bit including painting a table – I had that interior call, a flutter and filling of the heart so I asked.....

HH: Jesus, are you really calling me?

JESUS: Yes, I am, it is good to rest and pause awhile, Halina – But for once you gave Me a space to do this – you work so hard and pray for so many but please listen to Me more. I have tested your resolve in these so difficult times for humanity with so many challenges and disruptions.

I have heard your cry and inner pain and sometimes, near despair, at many things especially the singular conflict between Church and State – Poverty and Affluence – Health and Economy, and mostly, not finding space, to convey what I have taught you and asked of you to proclaim.

I shield your family as does beloved Mama. Yes now ‘a little poorly’ but they will recover.

Halina – the purification of Mankind continues, and I will test both My followers and lukewarm further. I long for all to return wholeheartedly to Me and My Heart which loves all so much – but time is running out and Mankind grows colder towards Me piling sin upon sin and not showing remorse – which is a door to My abundant and overwhelming forgiveness.

I try so many ways to return the sheep to My fold, but they run in the opposite direction frightened of the light that I might shine on their sinfulness. But soon they will not be able to escape the light beyond light that will stream on earth and reveal the weakness of so many and the sins and transgressions of all. Pray that you will be able to withstand that torchlight into your inner selves and not turn away or run in terror. It takes humility to look into yourself and say ‘yes I have done this or that’. Yes – I fall short of what is required of me in each estate of life. Each one has been given grace, to respond but throws it away into a holed bucket and it drains away and you too feel drained. Use those graced gifts – USE THEM – they will help you so much.

Do not listen to those who wish to divide and conquer and throw all into confusion. Speak to those who uplift and encourage you and others. A humble person simply says ‘I do not know’ – if uncertain does not join the crowd on either left or right causing further distress. You have been taught well. Stick to my teaching and if in doubt ask Me.

Remember “Seek and ye shall find – Knock and the door will be opened to you” – Did I say this in vain?

At all, times be patient for the answer. At all times wait in peace and tranquillity. Do not rush like the Gadarine swine over the cliff because they were driven by evil. Be patient and surrender. All is in My Father’s hands –all WILL be fulfilled. ALL will become clear – be open to the truth at all times.

Now stop and pray- for Mercy [it is exactly 3 p.m.] Reflect Halina (pause)

3.15 p.m.: Halina confession is good for the soul. Through no fault you have now been unable to receive its benefits weekly. Yes, you tried during these restricted times but now you have left it several times, a few months – too long – and you know it. You understand the graces given and the strength that follows forgiveness. Please find a way to resume – Try your pastor – but if not then go further afield.

Look carefully, too, at the Medical report about your health and ask your Consultant for further advice – for your back is a problem for you – and I want you to do this.

HH: Why?

JESUS: Just do say for My purpose. Finally you have it in duplicate for the hospital sent it to you unasked.

HH: I am puzzled but will do so, Jesus.

JESUS: Pray for all priests near and far. Pray for their endurance and courage. Do not do what is against you conscience. Many are fearful and lead the flock in ways that do not give them the light of life – Myself. Stay close to the faithful and grace-filled.

HH: It is so hard sometimes to stand out from the crowd.

JESUS: Yes but as I say to you often – you must follow ME to the Cross – not halfway up that hill but to the top and be Crucified with Me – and do you not feel the nails? Yes, they hurt but cannot compare to mine – for I am Innocent – you marred by sin but your love will lead you and give you strength and courage; all for love – all for love – this must be your only motive.

(Then Jesus gives me a personal message but I do not have to reveal it)

JESUS: Keep watching also the other signs of the times for nature is disturbed and groaning. Pray for peace and not strife. Pray for the lost and broken – those who are homeless, suffering and alone – pray for my beloved flock – pray for your Holy Father – he is in need of prayer as wolves would invade his territory and tear down the truth. He is an old-man and needs to be accorded respect and cared for. Pray that he endures to the end.

Now Halina be patient and gentle – speak out with humility. Now rest awhile and re-read and ponder.

HH: Don't go, don't go.....

JESUS: [He smiles] I will return.

Lonely little one – I will return.
