My Mother Mary...

I had just returned to my room to rest a little when I received that unmistakable 'call'

Dzień dobry Halinko- I know that you love my special place, and you find spiritual rest here. Let me guide you further for time is now short before events evolve that will shake the world from its apathy and blindness.

You notice the signs of spiritual awakening here but will my children return and proclaim the truth to others- will they take my message of peace to others and live it or place it in a dark place?

You are having difficulties with Catherine- let me help you discern the truth – care for her in your heart and pray for her.

You have found your spiritual guide write to him; he will reply.

Fr. Louis must trust in my maternal protection, and he will accompany you well and you have been a blessing to him. Rejoice in your friendship. Speak the truth to each other – in love.

My children are lost, so many need prayer and love – look around you and you will see, lead all to my Son.

Use all your gifts Halina they are for a purpose but stay away from those whose intentions are not pure but self-interested.

I have provided a safe haven for you and your family. All will become clear to you. Wait in Peace.

Let me fill your heart with my peace that peace that which the Holy Spirit gives.

PRAY MUCH HERE AND FIND ME IN EVERY CORNER.

PRAY FOR Emma- pray for Andy.

Ask Fr. Louis to pray for Susan

Hold my hand tightly Halina, Do not let go.

Blessings and love to you.

Halina: Thank you so so much.

Mother Mary ...Blessed are they that hear the word and keep it...
