

Window of Hope

Have a window to my heart
When darkness invades and colours are dull
Have a window to my heart.
When prayer is nil
and words escape
Have a window to my heart.
When pain is my friend
and aloneness invades
Have a window to my heart.
When nothing remains
Have a window to my heart.
When I cannot see a future and the past is still
Have a window to my heart.
When I know naught
and cannot think awhile
Have a window to my heart.
Open my window and see Your image in me and so seeing
Lead me to Our Father.
Lord, always have a window to my heart.

Prayer, Halina Holman
17th November 2006