

*'Like Sheep without a Shepherd' Summary of 'teachings'
on the Eucharist and Warning
for our times.*

...MY people- My sheep struggle at present to find a true home and rest for all are weary. It is hard to continue with little support and My dear sheep walk step by step with Me. - but they are heavy footed and confused. They must stay within earshot so that I can guide them - an console them. Every journey has its difficulties but at the end when the goal is reached there is Joy and gladness of heart. As I hung on that Cross I longed to be with My Father, but united in Union I knew where I was bound. My little sheep- you too know where you are bound, and you too must not give up. Instead lift your feet and your arms - your arms in prayer. And pray for each other. Do not let your petty disputes stop you from loving your brothers and sisters. It is always a challenge- but love does not stop it continues to give to the other - even in trials. Keep your hearts open to love for in so doing you focus on me. Remember 'this poor man called, and the Lord answered' it is important to know that the poorer, more humble you are the louder is your calling in heaven.
