

Locution received this day 1st January 2013, Langley Moor. 4 pm.

As my right arm is broken I asked the Lord whether I should write on the Computer, first checking that perhaps I should try with the broken one. He drew me to the computer and unable to write any other way I proceed.

Jesus..... Thank you for writing this way.( Away In the manger is playing on the computer as I write) You are starting a new year as you begun it with ill health and more to come but this a blessing for you and you can enter into My Kingdom whole and repaired. My little flower of the desert, my little Rosebud and Cactus, now flowering.

I come to encourage you but also to give this warning to those who have eyes to see and ears to hear. The time is now fast approaching when mankind will beg for peace and none will come. They will plead for respite from the storm and none will come . They will plead for others and only the just will be justified and those who even at this late hour beg for my Mercy which is boundless,

But beware of the false prophets. Beware of those that promise much but their bounty is limited. Beware of those who promise all the goods of the earth but who wish to take away My promise of Redemption to those whose hearts are turned and open to My love. I have redeemed you from death and I do not change my mind. How you wish to spend eternity lies in your own hands. Convert before it is too late. Plead for my Mercy for it shall be granted.

But be quick for time belongs to my Father and does not belong to you poor mankind.

Do not mock that which the Lord had made

Do not desecrate the sanctuary.

Do not make false Gods out of paper things and people who can vanish like the dust.

Do not ignore the many warnings that I have given.

You Halina are aware of the false and true. You have been gifted with wisdom and understanding, use it well. You have endured darkness that I have permitted for many experience only this. Do not let this impede what you do by faith and love for your strength lies in the grace I have lavished you with and not your own power for this is negligible.

Do not fear love Halina, yes it is costly at times but you do not now know anything else and so must increase your love daily. Have complete and utter Trust in Me and that I am guiding you and preparing a path for you to follow. You feel that you have failed to complete your mission for you have not found that chapel. You feel that maybe you have not been faithful enough to your call and compromise through human weakness. Do not judge yourself. I know why you have not proceeded and still beckon you on. This past year has been very hard but blessed for you and you have become very aware of all your shortcomings and faults but you forget that that this brings you to my Cradle and to My cross. You yourself realised the call to the cradle, to be childlike in your love of Me and those you encounter.

The martyrdom of childhood is crucial for the innocence of the young is a purity that man loses. We're not the holy Innocents slain so that I could be murdered as one of them? I was spared but the entered the Kingdom with Angels at their side.

This year will unfold in a curious way but beware not to be deceived.

Pray much for those that I have entrusted to your care and those that you love so much.

Pray for all priests especially those whom you know so well and have become a special friend and Sister to as well as guide. Do not forget to pray for those near death and those who have died. Many have much to repent but they are my Brothers and special envoys.

I too had special friends and I know that this can be difficult. As you know human beings have the capacity for many kinds of love each can be a blessing even if requiring much restraint and self-mastery. But you have been schooled and your love purer, and I leave with you your preferences and longings for they are a special gift to you in human weakness and a gift to me in their surrender.

Now Halina, the darling of my Heart, the flower that has learnt to bend with the wind and face the sun, My Mother wishes to speak to you on this Her Feast. She is both my Mother and Yours but She is the Mother of a God Man and her place in Heaven cannot be surpassed. Rest a little for it is hard for you using one hand.

Halina... Yes it is.... Thank you for speaking to Me. Thank you for teaching me. Thank you for saving me. Thank you for loving me.

Shortly after a phone call I received the following:

Our Lady.....My Mother.....

Halina... Thank you for your response. Dear Child of grace and Bethlehem. I come to bring you comfort and reassurance that you are on the right road. The Host Apostolate' is growing and will do so in spite of difficulties. You may wonder at its direction and you were willing to change course and give it up if asked. But dearest child any changes will be done for you and you do not have to understand the reasons or the consequences. Follow my example continue saying simply yes to what is presented to you unless it is not holy or good.

Be prepared for anything and be open hearted, You have suffered much but your 'yes' will bring much joy to you as well as others.

Last year was full of many challenges and surprises. See how much help you received just enough financial to help you when you needed it. Have complete trust in the Lord Jesus care for you . Be prepared to leave behind what you have to and go freely. The time for this will be made clear to you but you will go with others that you do not expect.

Be clear about you mission. Speak out when necessary and keep silent when it is of no avail.

I AM KEEPING GUARD OVER THOSE PRECIOUS CHILDREN PREPARING TO RECEIVE My Son. You have already noticed the one or two that are spiritual. They are yearning for the truth. Give it to them regardless of what others may say or think. All is in your heart. They know that. Love them, pray for them and teach and guide them.

Halina... I guard your family as I have said... I will not abandon them. Trust Me and pray the Rosary for them... Yes, I know that you find it difficult to say alone. But do your best for the angels finish it for you. Remember what you tell others The intention is important not the manner. Try to keep this to the forefront of you heart. Other prayer is so much easier for you such as this. How beautifully you prayed it as a child. Do you remember how you use to jump over the pavement cracks to remind yourself of the number and to keep yourself going. You were so little and heaven smiled.

Little one,,, rest more you must for it may be a long time to endure... But keep that smile for it is a gift to you and others too. I keep you and Fr. B... is special care.....See what we are doing....

Halina. Pray much for all those you encounter. Keep your attention on the kingdom to come. Pray for Fr. P.P. He works hard but he too must learn to rest more.

Now give the message to Fr. Louis.

I love you little brave heart.

Halina... "Me too. I mean I love you too. Thank you for all your help. Happy Feast day".
